

Make a copy of this page for each student. Cut the cards apart and place each set into an envelope or plastic Ziploc bag. Students read the cards and match the causes with the effects.

A BAD CASE OF STRIPES by David Shannon

Cause and Effect Category Board

Camilla looks in the mirror.	Camilla tries to say the pledge of allegiance.
Camilla wanted everyone to like her.	No one knew how to cure Camilla.
Camilla came down with a bad case of stripes.	Camilla's changing colors distracted the students.
Camilla took her medicine.	Camilla ate lima beans.
Camilla learned to be herself.	Camilla didn't eat lima beans.
Camilla changes into red, white and blue stars and stripes.	Camilla changed back into herself.
Camilla's parents were worried.	Camilla turned into a multi-colored pill bottle.
Camilla was asked to leave school.	Camilla screams.

Make a copy of this page for each student. Cut the cards apart and place each set into an envelope or plastic Ziploc bag. Students read the cards and match the causes with the effects.